Dancing Spanishness: Antonia Mercé La Argentina in the Philippines

Idoia Murga-Castro, Instituto de Historia, Consejo Superior de Investigaciones Científicas
This paper analyzes colonial gestures in the 1929 tour of the Philippines of the Spanish dancer Antonia Mercé Luque (Buenos Aires, 1890 - Bayonne, 1936), aka La Argentina, within the incipient cultural policies of Hispanidad and the strategies of construction and legitimation of a dance of Spanish national identity. The talk explores her impact on Manilan society barely thirty years after Spain lost the colony to the hands of the United States, as well as the circumstances in which she studied and documented the Philippine dance cariñosa, which she then adapted and included in her repertoire on her return to Europe.

Mosaic 2020: Virtually Unstoppable

A Celebration of the Arts

This year our annual Mosaic Concert transitions from the stage to the screen. Always an anticipated season highlight, this virtual concert is as much a testament to our students' artistry as it is to their scholarship, and both will be unmistakable on Mosaic 2020's virtual stage.

A selection of spirited, back-to-back presentations from the Boyer College of Music and Dance and the School of Theater, Film and Media Arts showcases the diverse and virtuosic talents of our students. Many performances will be presented from the campus venues where we would normally enjoy them, while showings from departments like Film and Media Arts are innately suited for virtual presentation. These together offer a lively summary of many months of diligence, collaboration and collective perseverance across the entire Center for the Performing and Cinematic Arts.

Tim Warfield's Jazzy Christmas: In Concert
Kick off the holiday season with the premiere of Jazzy Christmas: In Concert! Saxophonist Tim Warfield plays tracks from the album hailed as "the rare holiday offering that swings as hard as it celebrates the season" and brings a lineup of jazz greats with him. Trumpeter Terell Stafford, who is hailed as "one of the great players of our time" and appeared on the Jazzy Christmas album, returns to play alongside Warfield, along with soulful vocalist Christie Dashiell of Sweet Honey in the Rock and award-winning pianist Joshua Richman. Rounding out the group are rising jazz artists and Boyer students, Nathan Pence on bass and Maria Marmarou on sticks.

Recorded live at the Temple Performing Arts Center, classic holiday tunes like Santa Claus is Coming to Town, Let it Snow, Silent Night and Caroling Caroling get a fresh take with Warfield's arrangements. The show premieres the evening after Thanksgiving to ring in the season! Whether you're ready to hear your holiday favorites or "simply great jazz," as one critic described it, you don't want to miss this show!

Watch the premiere on youtube.com/boyercollege at 7:30pm on Friday, November 27.
