About the Temple University Diamond Marching Band

The “Pride of the Cherry and White,” the Temple University Diamond Marching Band presents exciting and innovative contemporary shows during the fall semester. The Marching Band performs a traditional pre-game show with varied half-time shows throughout the season. In addition to six hours of rehearsal per week, activities are arranged to be compatible with student schedules. The “Pride of The Cherry and White” Marching Band performs at all home games and also travels to select away games and to Bowl Games.

The Diamond Marching Band participated in the 2011 New Mexico Bowl, the 2009 EagleBank Bowl, the first Sugar Bowl in 1935 (Temple vs. Tulane), the Mirage Bowl held in Tokyo, Japan, the Garden State Bowl at the Giants Stadium, and the “We the People 200 Parade,” celebrating the bicentennial of the United States Constitution. The Diamond Marching Band is regularly invited to perform at exhibitions. They have also appeared in New York City on The Today Show and Good Morning America.

The Diamond Band has taken part in Hollywood movies and events held in Philadelphia and New York. They recently performed at the premiere of Here Comes the Boom starring Kevin James, appeared in the Oscar nominated movie, The Wolf of Wall Street and can be seen in the remake of Annie starring Jamie Foxx and Cameron Diaz. The band has also appeared on TV in episodes of the CBS drama Madam Secretary, and most recently, The Tonight Show starring Jimmy Fallon.

The music played by the Diamond Band has garnered national attention. The band was named in Rolling Stone Magazine in the article “Top 10 Marching Band Cover Songs” for their rendition of Kanye West’s All of the Lights and in USA Today for their version of 5 Seconds of Summer’s hit, She Looks So Perfect. The band has also received social media shout-outs from artists they have covered such as Camila Cabello, Paramore, Bastille, Fall Out Boy, AJR, and Walk the Moon. The Band's 2016 Show Panic! At the Disco has surpassed 2.5 million views on YouTube, and their video of BTS's Idol from last year has received 2.6 million.

The Diamond Marching Band's large and diverse membership provides exciting opportunities for instrumentalists, color guard performers and twirlers from every School and College at Temple University. The band's membership is comprised of 75% non-music majors.

Temple University

Temple University's history begins in 1884, when a young working man asked Russell Conwell if he could tutor him at night. It wasn't long before he was teaching several dozen students—working people who could only attend class at night but had a strong desire to make something of themselves. Conwell recruited volunteer faculty to participate in the burgeoning night school, and in 1888 he received a charter of incorporation for "The Temple College." His founding vision for the school was to provide superior educational opportunities for academically talented and highly motivated students, regardless of their backgrounds or means. The fledgling college continued to grow, adding programs and students throughout the following decades. Today, Temple's more than 35,000 students continue to follow the university's official motto—Perseverantia Vincit, or "Perseverance Conquers"—with their supreme dedication to excellence in academics, research, athletics, the arts and more.
