

Participants will conduct once each day and are free to choose their own repertoire. If choosing a multi-movement work we recommend choosing one movement per day. Conductors will be asked to sign up for their repertoire one day in advance, allowing freedom to select different pieces and/or repeat a piece based on feedback received throughout the week.

Large ensemble pieces should be selected for Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, and Friday. A chamber piece should be selected for Wednesday.

Large Ensemble Repertoire Carol Brittin Chambers - Tarantella Aaron Copland/trans. Patterson - Down a Country Lane Katahj Copley - Halcyon Hearts Gustav Holst (ed. Matthews) - Second Suite in F (any movement) Percy Grainger (ed. Fennell) - Lincolnshire Posy (movements 1, 2, 5, 6) Dwayne S. Milburn - American Hymnsong Suite (any movement) Cait Nishimura - Intrinsic Light Kathryn Salfelder - Reminiscence Frank Ticheli - Abracadabra Hugh M. Stuart - Three Ayres from Gloucester (any movement)

Chamber Repertoire (for Wednesday, June 26) Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart - Serenade No. 11 in E-flat major, K. 375 (any movement) Robert Spittal - Consort for Ten Winds (any movement) Katahj Copley - Serenade for Wind Octet (any movement)